

Colors of Paradise – International Children’s Painting Festival 2025

1. Competition Overview

The Colors of Paradise International Painting Festival invites young artists from around the world to celebrate Shiraz cultural heritage and its diverse historical and natural attractions through creativity and imagination.

Alongside works inspired by Shiraz, the festival will feature an exhibition of children's paintings reflecting their own cultural heritage. This helps participants connect with their heritage while allowing Shiraz's children and residents to experience the richness of global cultures through the eyes of young artists.

Participation is free of charge, making the festival a truly inclusive platform for creativity, dialogue and friendship.

2. Age Eligibility

Children and teenagers aged between 7 and 15 years (as of 31 December 2025) may participate. The competition is divided into two categories:

- Group A: Ages 7–10 years
- Group B: Ages 11–15 years

3. Sections of the Competition

There are two sections in the competition:

A. Main Section – “Colors of Paradise” Shiraz” Participants are invited to paint or draw scenes inspired by Shiraz — its cultural heritage, gardens, monuments, or landmarks. Each participant may submit up to three (3) artworks.

B. Side Section – “My City, My Heritage:” Participants are invited and encouraged to create one additional painting inspired by their own city, town, or heritage. All works submitted to this section will be exhibited in Shiraz as part of the international showcase.
